Youth in Mind sessions (YiM), YiM information sessions, YiM Active, SOUND and Headspace – are all small group sessions which focus on specific interests and issues that are important to young people

Play maker – A sporting programme centred around football, which improves skills and could result in the gaining of coaching qualifications.

Youth Ambassadors, (CAG) Community Action Group, Youth Voice - to give those young people identified in detached/youth sessions throughout the year a space to enable them to influence the world around them and take action by developing various projects.

Detached/Open Access – youth workers meet young people in their local neighbourhoods for engagement/outdoor activities/arts/music and project work.

Outreach – Youth Workers make contact with young people in their local area – this is done by a referral sent to:- youth.service@bradford.gov.uk
